

Our thoughts are that the main 2 areas of strength on this order were the competitive pricing and general communications.

We chose Caterkwik as they provided a very competitive price for our new Rational oven, having researched a number of providers. Our account manager also back to us quickly, and with an email follow up, to all queries raised throughout the purchase and delivery process.

