

Waffle Maker

The professional Buffalo Waffle Maker is renowned for being great value for money whilst offering the appearance and results of some of the more expensive waffle iron brands. Its stainless steel construction and cast iron plates make it highly robust, whilst its compact design makes it ideal for counter-top front of house use. The ability to place this waffle maker in full view not only means your customers will get their waffles hot off the iron, but it also ensures the waffle maker itself can work on a merchandising level. Seeing and smelling your crispy yet doughy waffles being made is sure to make a big impact on your sales.
